Auctioneers'/Sale Managers' notes:

We have been granted the privilege of conducting the online auction of one of the finest offerings of guns and related shooting items ever, from one individual. Larry Olson was well-known locally and nationally as an avid collector, shooter, and hunter. His passing leaves a significant void in the lives of those who knew him. As you follow this dispersal closely, you will soon realize that this event is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. Refer to Proxibid.com for future communication and listings of the estate's offerings and dates as they occur. You will have a highly enjoyable journey with us as we work our way through the Larry M. Olson Estate offerings!
